TRUSTEE'S REPORT (INCLUDING DIRECTORS' REPORT)

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in note 1 to the financial statements and comply with the charity's Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Companies Act 2006 and "Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)" (as amended for accounting periods commencing from 1 January 2019).

Objectives and activities

The charity exists for the purpose of the social education of young people aged 8-25 years by supporting and developing the work of various youth organisations and to enhance youth provision within Cornwall through the development of projects which address youth issues. We aim to achieve the following objectives:

1. To support children and young people, especially, but not exclusively, those most at risk to enable them to realise their full potential and to facilitate their social and personal development.
2. To provide programmes and projects that address issues that place young people at risk.
3. To broaden children and young people's aspirations and horizons by providing them with a range of opportunities that are innovative and challenging.
4. To support and empower youth groups/clubs and build their capacity to enable young people within their community to make a positive contribution.
5. To raise the profile of young people within the community/county and to celebrate their achievements.

Our projects work alongside young people enabling them to access a wide variety of positive activities including sports work, outdoor activities, music, dance, issue-based workshops and education and training opportunities. We run dedicated projects providing support to young people experiencing unemployment, mental health issues & violence within the community. Our work enables young people to build their confidence, self-esteem, teamwork and co-operation skills and their ability to make positive and informed choices.

Public benefit

The council of management have referred to the guidance in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the aims and objectives and in planning future activities. In particular, the council of management consider how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives set and the impact they have on our beneficiaries. The main beneficiary of our work is young people aged 8-25 years old living in Cornwall, but the trustees also recognise the work of adult volunteers who, in providing support services to young people in their community, also become beneficiaries through accessing activities we deliver such as training and accreditation opportunities.

The public benefit that arises from our work are as follows:

1. Young people & their communities are given support to ensure that they gain a sense of usefulness, purpose, value and belonging enabling them to become active citizens and contributing to community cohesion.
2. The health & education opportunities for young people in Cornwall are improved and promoted and young people are better equipped to make positive and life enhancing decisions that will lead to improved physical and mental health and fulfilment.
3. Young people and their communities feel safer and stronger which results in improved democratic engagement of young people, increased confidence in young people and less need for the involvement of the criminal justice system.
4. Communities are able to provide spaces & places for young people to meet with each other, gain access to support services and a range of activities which contribute to individual, family and community well-being.

Review of activities and future developments

The specific projects currently in progress and a review of each project's activities are shown on page 4. These projects enable us to fulfil our charitable objectives of providing opportunities for young people to enable them to grow and develop as individuals and positive members of society and fulfilling our public benefit requirement.

Achievements and performance

Statistics - 2023/24

Participants: (where a young person is known to a worker by name and is registered on our database):

2107 young people accessed our direct services on a regular basis during the year.

Average age of participant: 14 years 10 months.

Reach: (the number of young people our services meet during our activities and campaigns)

In 2023/24 the organisation reached 6458 young people living in Cornwall achieved through work in schools, direct work, youth clubs we support, large events, activity programmes (Time to Move), sporting events and project work.

Impact:

In considering the impact our work has on our beneficiaries we routinely collect direct feedback from young people, parents and stakeholders in order to demonstrate the success of our work. Our staff are trained in a transformative evaluation process which generates 'Significant Change Stories' that help young people and ourselves to articulate the impact of our work in the words of young people themselves. Some of the comments recorded during this process are as follows:

- 'I feel less anxious, more willing to try new things & learnt new coping mechanisms'
- 'Generally feeling low less often as I have thought of more things to do, so I have less time to feel low.'
- 'The biggest thing that has changed for me is my panic attacks - I now rarely have them'
- 'This conversation has made me cry in a good way because people usually get mad at me when I message them about my feelings, but you never get mad so thank you so much for that. You have no idea how much I needed to hear that this evening'
- 'You make me want to try harder at school. It's hard to do the right thing but I am trying" - Turnaround young person
- 'I don't think my mum would have been able to get my school shoes for a while, Thank you for helping her'
- 'I don't know what I would have done without this support'.
- 'The most significant change for me has been an improvement in my ability to hold off from things that are harmful to me such as not self-harming immediately when I feel like garbage! Finding some distance between thought and action and my ability to reach out for help'

YOUNG PEOPLE CORNWALL (LIMITED BY GUARANTEE) TRUSTEE'S REPORT (INCLUDING DIRECTORS' REPORT) (CONTINUED) FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2024

Parent feedback

- 'Thank you for all of your work with E. She has found it very beneficial and seems in a much better place at the moment.'
- 'Thank you so much for all the help you have provided, it makes me feel at ease knowing that there is someone else supporting him. I can't put into words how much I appreciate all of this and I will definitely stay in touch if X is struggling. Thankyou again you have been amazing.'
- 'My son doesn't really go anywhere to be with friends, due to there not being anywhere that is appropriate locally. Since attending we are happy as parents that he is safe and his needs can be met, whilst allowing him to develop independence. This group is the highlight of his week'

In addition to generating Significant Change Stories, we use the Outcomes Star to measure the impact of our work on the lives of young people accessing our services. My Mind Star helps us ascertain individual changes in behaviour. The tool captures where young people are and their progress in 7 areas of their lives, all of which are considered essential to contribute to the personal and social development of a young person. Young people are asked to fill in the 'My Mind Star' (supported by a youth worker) at the beginning of a project or intervention and then do the same at regular intervals throughout their involvement with the project. The results are then collated and can show demonstrable progress in the 7 areas and as such individual outcomes can be highlighted and the impact of our interventions measured.

The following distance travelled chart is based on interventions made with young people between April 1st 2023– March 31st 2024 and shows data referring to 710 young people accessing our services who completed a Youth Star.

Star Online Distance-travelled Report

How much progress are people making in each outcome area?

92% of young people are making progress in at least one outcome area whilst 68% of young people engaged are making progress in at least three outcome areas. Young people are showing good progress in 'Making a difference' (volunteering and social action) and in improving their well-being. These results show that young people accessing our services seem to be in a much better position now than they have been since the Covid pandemic lockdowns of 2020 & 2021.

As part of our contract to deliver support for young people with mental health issues we are obliged to use the IAPTUS system to record data for use in the National Minimum Mental Health Data Set. This system tells us that in 2023/24 our Well-Being Practitioners worked with 432 young people & provided 2591 appointments to young people. The main reasons for being referred to us were young people experiencing anxiety and depression. The system tracks a range of outcome measures and informs us that 74 % of young people showed a reliable improvement in their mental health whilst 96 % of young people felt listened to.

Volunteers

A traditional function of Young People Cornwall is to support volunteers who help run community led youth groups. Whilst the charity has no direct funding to provide this support, we continue to offer support to volunteers in these settings by providing a range of services including providing DBS checks, remote advice around governance issues and training opportunities. In the last year we supported 25 youth groups & 56 volunteers helping to provide essential services for young people in their communities.

In addition to supporting volunteers in the community, we are also fortunate to have hosted over 30 volunteers who worked within our direct delivery projects over the last year. These volunteers brought a host of expertise and activities to the sessions we deliver including dance workshops, cookery & food programmes, DIY, minibus driving, employment related workshops etc.

The trustees of Young People Cornwall would like to thank all of those volunteers who give their time so generously to ensure that young people can access youth activities across Cornwall.

The charity assists other organisations to fulfil their objectives. This work can form an income for the charity and the gross income is reported in the notes to the accounts. Financial review

The results for the year are set on page 17.

Reserves policy

The trustees review the charity's requirements for reserves in light of the main risks to the organisation. It has established a policy whereby the unrestricted funds not committed should be between 3 and 6 months of expenditure. The target is £375k to £750k in general funds. The reserves are needed to meet the working capital requirements of the charity and the trustees are confident at this level they would be able to continue the current activities in the event of a significant drop in funding.

The present level of unrestricted reserves available to the charitable company is £476,210 (2023: £436,765), this includes £145,000 of designated reserves (2023: £145,000) giving free reserves of £331,210 (2023: £291,765).

The present level of restricted reserves is £726,744 (2023: £759,454) giving total charity funds of £1,202,954 (2023: £1,196,219).

Our Funders

The Council of Management would like to express their thanks to the following funders and grant giving trusts who continue to support the valuable work of Young People Cornwall. Their investment helps us to continue to improve the quality of life for young people living in the county and to meet our charitable objectives.

Internal control and risk management

To mitigate and manage risk, we maintain a detailed risk register, which is reviewed every three months by the Senior Management Team and every twelve months by the Board, and whenever significant new risks are identified.

The trustees consider the financial sustainability of the charity remains a risk given uncertain economic conditions. In the past year, staff were given a pay increase in line with a national increase in pay for youth workers. This pay award has placed extra financial pressure on the charity and combined with the extra costs associated with increased inflation— in particular increases in energy, utility and general supplies costs, the trustees expect to use some reserves to cover shortfalls in funding.

Our longer-term contracts / funding agreements are mainly at a fixed price or with an annual uplift far below the recent rates of inflation. Therefore, the charity has had to absorb a general increase in costs & make adjustments to delivery or staffing to break even. The senior management team have identified those programmes and projects where delivery costs have risen above expected income and identified efficiency changes to be made to delivery or staffing. Where possible we have negotiated with funders to increase the funding available to us to account for the increase in cost of living but where this has not been possible, we plan to scale down delivery or identify new funding sources to account for a potential shortfall.

Cyber security & data protection compliance has emerged as a risk to the charity over the last few years. Cyber incidents executed by external or internal parties that negatively impact the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the charity's information systems and data is a growing threat. As a result of this we have improved our IT systems and compliance, achieving Cyber Essentials accreditation, ensuring staff are well trained and worked with our IT suppliers to ensure our systems are robust and compliant. The trustees are confident that the measures we have taken are sufficient to mitigate risk and ensure contractual compliance.

Demand for our services continues to grow. Over the last year we have seen a continual rise in referrals to the organisation which places extra pressure on staff capacity and the infrastructure we need to support our work – this, at a time, when donor income is squeezed and funding is harder to draw down.

The trustees recognise and acknowledge the risks associated with safeguarding and ensure we have robust systems, policies and procedures in place that help protect the young people we serve and consequently our staff and the organisation. In 2023/24 we recorded 639 safeguarding concerns – a 120% increase from the previous year - with 90 % of these related to mental health and associated issues. All staff undertake annual training & have DBS checks in place which are renewed every 3 years as a minimum. We employ several staff who are qualified safeguarding trainers and able to train internal and external staff. All concerns that are raised by staff, young people or other professionals are recorded using dedicated software which provides a real time audit trail of decisions and interventions made in response to a safeguarding concern. Our senior managers provide on-call support for frontline staff working in the evenings ensuring strong support. The trustees are confident that our systems are compliant and that our staff are highly skilled and would like to thank all staff for their diligence in ensuring that young people we work with are given the best possible support at the right time.

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charity in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the trustee's use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the charity's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the Trustees with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The Trustees are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinions on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of our audit:

- the information given in the trustee's report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared, which includes the directors' report prepared for the purposes of company law, is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the directors' report included within the trustee's report has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the charity and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the directors' report included within the trustee's report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit; or
- the Trustees were not entitled to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the small companies regime and take advantage of the small companies' exemptions in preparing the trustee's report and from the requirement to prepare a strategic report.

Responsibilities of Trustees

As explained more fully in the statement of trustee's responsibilities, the Trustees, who are also the directors of the charity for the purpose of company law, are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the Trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Trustees are responsible for assessing the charity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Trustees either intend to liquidate the charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

TO THE MEMBERS OF YOUNG PEOPLE CORNWALL

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud.

As part of our audit work, we obtained an understanding of the legal and regulatory frameworks applicable to the charity and the sector in which they operate. We determined that the laws and regulations surrounding the safeguarding of young people were most significant to the charity, as well as the laws and regulations that have a direct impact on the preparation of the financial statements such as the Charities Act 2011, the Companies Act 2006 and compliance with the Charities Statement of Recommended Practice.

The specific procedures for this engagement and the extent to which these are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below:

- Discussion with management as to how compliance with these laws and regulations is monitored;
- Review of the disclosures in the financial statements and testing to supporting documentation;
- Enquiries of management concerning actual and potential litigation and claims;
- Performing analytical procedures to identify any unusual or unexpected relationships that may indicate risks of material misstatement due to fraud;
- Reviewing minutes of directors' meetings and correspondence with regulators;
- Performing audit work in connection with the risk of management override of controls, including testing journal entries for reasonableness and evaluating the business rationale of significant transactions outside the normal course of business.

We also communicate relevant identified laws and regulations and potential fraud risk to all engagement team members and remain alert to any indications of fraud or non-compliance with laws and regulations throughout the audit.

Our audit approach also considered the opportunities and incentives that may exist within the charity for fraud and identified the greatest potential for fraud being in respect of cut off and completion risk around revenue recognition. Under ISA (UK) we are also required to undertake procedures to respond to the risk of management override of controls. Our procedures included the following:

- Undertaking transactional testing on revenue
- Performing completeness testing on a sample of significant projects undertaken during the year
- Performing cut off testing on income
- Auditing the risk of management override of controls, including through testing journal entries and other adjustments for appropriateness, and evaluating the business rationale for significant transactions outside the normal course of business
- Reviewing estimates and judgements made in the accounts for any indication of bias and challenged assumptions used by management in making estimates.

TO THE MEMBERS OF YOUNG PEOPLE CORNWALL

Because of the inherent limitations of an audit, there is a risk that we will not detect all irregularities, including those leading to a material misstatement in the financial statements or non-compliance with regulation. This risk increases the more that compliance with a law or regulation is removed from the events and transactions reflected in the financial statements, as we will be less likely to become aware of instances of non-compliance. The risk is also greater regarding irregularities occurring due to fraud rather than error, as fraud involves intentional concealment, forgery, collusion, omission or misrepresentation.

A further description of our responsibilities is available on the Financial Reporting Council's website at: <https://www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities>. This description forms part of our audit report.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the charitable company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charitable company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charitable company and the charitable company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

1 Accounting policies

Charity information

Young People Cornwall is a private company limited by guarantee incorporated in England and Wales. The registered office is The House Youth Centre, Carlyon Road, ST AUSTELL, Cornwall, PL25 4DB.

1.1 Accounting convention

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the charity's governing documents, the Companies Act 2006 and "Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102). The charity is a Public Benefit Entity as defined by FRS 102.

The financial statements are prepared in sterling, which is the functional currency of the charity. Monetary amounts in these financial statements are rounded to the nearest £.

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention. The principal accounting policies adopted are set out below.

1.2 Going concern

At the time of approving the financial statements, the Trustees have a reasonable expectation that the charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Thus the Trustees continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the financial statements.

1.3 Incoming resources

Income is recognised when the charity is legally entitled to it after any performance conditions have been met, the amounts can be measured reliably, and it is probable that income will be received.

Cash donations are recognised on receipt. Other donations are recognised once the charity has been notified of the donation, unless performance conditions require deferral of the amount. Income tax recoverable in relation to donations received under Gift Aid or deeds of covenant is recognised at the time of the donation.

Legacies are recognised on receipt or otherwise if the charity has been notified of an impending distribution, the amount is known, and receipt is expected. If the amount is not known, the legacy is treated as a contingent asset.

Grants, including grants for the purchase of fixed assets, are recognised in full in the statement of financial activities in the year in which they are receivable. Grants could become repayable if certain conditions are not met.

Turnover is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable and represents amounts receivable for goods and services provided in the normal course of business, net of discounts, VAT and other sales related taxes.

1.4 Resources expended

Expenditure is recognised once there is a legal or constructive obligation to transfer economic benefit to a third party, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement, and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably.

Expenditure is classified by activity. The costs of each activity are made up of the total of direct costs and shared costs, including support costs involved in undertaking each activity. Direct costs attributable to a single activity are allocated directly to that activity. Shared costs which contribute to more than one activity and support costs which are not attributable to a single activity are apportioned between those activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources. Central staff costs are allocated on the basis of time spent, and depreciation charges are allocated on the portion of the asset's use.

All expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs relevant to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Governance costs represent the cost of relevant audit and accountancy fees.

1.5 Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are initially measured at cost and subsequently measured at cost or valuation, net of depreciation and any impairment losses.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost or valuation of assets less their residual values over their useful lives on the following bases:

Motor vehicles	25% straight line
----------------	-------------------

The gain or loss arising on the disposal of an asset is determined as the difference between the sale proceeds and the carrying value of the asset, and is recognised in the statement of financial activities.

1.6 Impairment of fixed assets

At each reporting end date, the charity reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any).

1.7 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities.

1.8 Financial instruments

The charity has elected to apply the provisions of Section 11 'Basic Financial Instruments' and Section 12 'Other Financial Instruments Issues' of FRS 102 to all of its financial instruments.

Financial instruments are recognised in the charity's balance sheet when the charity becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Financial assets and liabilities are offset, with the net amounts presented in the financial statements, when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Basic financial assets

Basic financial assets, which include debtors and cash and bank balances, are initially measured at transaction price including transaction costs and are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method unless the arrangement constitutes a financing transaction, where the transaction is measured at the present value of the future receipts discounted at a market rate of interest. Financial assets classified as receivable within one year are not amortised.

1 Accounting policies

Basic financial liabilities

Basic financial liabilities, including creditors and bank loans are initially recognised at transaction price unless the arrangement constitutes a financing transaction, where the debt instrument is measured at the present value of the future payments discounted at a market rate of interest. Financial liabilities classified as payable within one year are not amortised.

Debt instruments are subsequently carried at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method.

Trade creditors are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of operations from suppliers. Amounts payable are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less. If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities. Trade creditors are recognised initially at transaction price and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are derecognised when the charity's contractual obligations expire or are discharged or cancelled.

1.9 Employee benefits

The cost of any unused holiday entitlement is recognised in the period in which the employee's services are received.

Termination benefits are recognised immediately as an expense when the charity is demonstrably committed to terminate the employment of an employee or to provide termination benefits.

1.10 Retirement benefits

Payments to defined contribution retirement benefit schemes are charged as an expense as they fall due.

1.11 Fund accounting

General funds are unrestricted funds which are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity and which have not been designated for other purposes.

Designated funds represent unrestricted funds earmarked by the trustees for particular purposes.

Restricted funds are funds which are to be used in accordance with specific restrictions imposed by donors or which have been raised by the charity for particular purposes. The cost of raising and administering such funds is charged against the specific fund. The aim and use of each restricted fund is set out in the notes to the financial statements.

1.12 Taxation

The charity is exempt from tax on income and gains falling within section 505 of the Taxes Act 1988 or section 252 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 to the extent that these are applied to its charitable objects.

2 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

In the application of the charity's accounting policies, the Trustees are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amount of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised where the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods where the revision affects both current and future periods.

NCS - National Citizen Service (NCS) is an exciting leadership opportunity for young people. We delivered the programme in 2015 to 64 young people, with partners including BF Adventure and Cornwall College. On the life-enhancing summer programme, young people age 15 to 18 had the opportunity to develop new, vital skills and to make new friends whilst having fun. Young people took part in a week of outdoor activities, a week residential at Falmouth Tremough campus with talks from local partners including My Bnk, Coppafeel, Shelterbox etc. Groups of young people then planned, organised and carried out their own social action projects in their own communities including fundraising for Jubilee Pool, Penzance, Beach day Porthpean, ground clearance at the Track etc. Outcomes for young people included:

- developing teamwork, leadership and communication skills.
- understanding communities, volunteering and participating
- graduating from the programme and receive a signed certificate from the Prime Minister.
- recognition by UCAS and employers across the country.
- making new friends and gaining memories and confidence that will last a lifetime.

Parish Youth Project - A partnership project which aims to provide youth services for young people living in the parish of St Agnes & is still in early stages of development.

Participation - formerly LDA (Learning Difficulties & Autism) Participation - Funded by Kernow Clinical Commissioning Group to work with young people & professionals to ensure the voices of young people with LDA are heard within commissioning / procurement structures.

Peer Support Work – KCCG funded work which aims to enable older young people to participate in training and to become paid Peer Support workers within the Speak Up Cornwall service.

Personalisation (Creative Art Therapy) - The Creative Art Project will support children & young people who are accessing CAMHS services and the well-being practitioner service. It will provide them with opportunities to engage in creative art-based activities that support their return to good mental health.

Section 136 – Building upon our existing mental health support and detached youth work this project will work with children and young people aged 8-18 who have been subject to a Section 136 plan and or who have persistently come to the attention of the Police due to their declining emotional wellbeing/mental health needs.

Sparkes – A project working with young women to build resilience and increasing wellbeing through inspiring young women and girls to raise their voices to lead change in their communities.

Suicide Prevention - A project designed to reduce incidences of suicide amongst young people by offering a range of support including group & individual work.

Support Hubs - Support hubs were set up in response to the increased emotional health & well-being needs of children and young people over the summer period of 2021 as a result of the covid pandemic. Seen as an alternative to the lack of school support as well as responding to escalating mental health presentations being made to local hospitals and CAMHS. The support hubs were provided across the county in 6 venues including: Truro, St Austell, Redruth, Liskeard, Penzance and Newquay.

The House - is a town centre based youth club in St Austell. The centre provides IAG positive activities, music work and issue-based workshops.
